About Star Wars and More: The Music of John Williams

It’s back! Star Wars and More with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra returns to The Fred in Peachtree City this Fall. This family-friendly symphonic concert features iconic film scores from legendary composer John Williams, including music from Star Wars, Harry Potter, Jurassic Park, Indiana Jones and much more. Fans are encouraged to dress in themed attire and cosplay to add to the fun.

Star Wars and More: The Music of John Williams is presented by the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Stuart Chafetz and will be performed at The Frederick Brown Jr. Amphitheater on Sunday, October 12 at 6:00PM. For tickets and further information visit aso.org.

About the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra

Under the leadership of Music Director Nathalie Stutzmann, the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra (ASO) offers live performances, media initiatives, and learning programs that unite, educate and enrich our community through the engaging and transformative power of orchestral music experiences. The ASO engages the diverse international community of our city, bringing people together in harmony—including our youngest citizens, with extensive opportunities for youth and families to fall in love with music. Two of the hallmark education programs celebrate anniversaries this season: the Atlanta Youth Symphony Orchestra celebrates 50 years and the Talent Development Program turns 30.

The Orchestra’s range and depth are featured in more than 150 concerts each year, including the flagship Delta Classical Series, Movies in Concert, Family Concerts, Coca-Cola Holiday series, and many community and education concerts. In addition, the ASO presents many vibrant, wide-ranging events and artists through its Delta Atlanta Symphony Hall Live presentations. The ASO also performs with the ASO Chorus, founded by Robert Shaw, currently directed by Norman

Mackenzie. The Chorus is featured on nine of the ASO's 27 Grammy® Award-winning recordings.
